

Folks, Please do not do anything to lesson the restrictions contained in Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. The law works fine and I have not had a single telemarketer call me since I registered. This is obviously a law with some teeth. I enjoy having dinner with my family and not having someone try to sell me a widget while I am eating.